Small Businesses Make - and How to Fix Them Your business is doing good, so why are you not more productive? You've set goals and put in hours. You have been patient with your employees and you have been on top of your finances. You've recognized that if you are not creative, your business could be like every other... a stagnant craft. By now, you have probably heard the numbers that show that over 40% of small businesses shut their doors within the first five years. Why are so many businesses closing and unable to continue to grow? Have you made the following mistakes? You run a business more like a hobby than an actual business. You do not have an organized business. You do not know where your money is going or what it is spending. You have not yet learned to delegate or empower your employees to do things for you. You are not tracking your numbers or researching how to grow your business. You are not giving yourself the time you need. You are not looking outside your business and trying to improve it. You do not have a master plan or strategy. There are so many reasons why you are not seeing the success that you can and should have. Maybe all
