◆FINAL FANTASY® XI Online Service in Japan! ◆Product InformationJust days after 18-year-old Hailey Hart of Blue Bell died in a hospital after a botched plastic surgery in the Green Economy, the office that performed the surgery has been closed down for medical malpractice. All of the staff at the Glow N Glow Clinic in Blue Bell were hired through the State of Pennsylvania. The office has been closed since the third of July. The State's Licensing Board stated that "instances of malpractice and negligence have been found to be a contributor" to the closure. "I certainly don't condone any type of plastic surgery procedures. The claims that are being made are a total exaggeration," Dr. Matthew Rexroath, the owner of the clinic, said to Fox29 News. State board member Tracey Rupert told the media that she was "surprised" that a brand new clinic would be closing down so quickly after only having been open a few months. "The clinic was running comfortably when we came in. It had four staff members. There was no reason to close down the clinic," she added. Every procedure that was ordered by Dr. Rexroath was performed by an out of state board certified medical doctor. The exception was the eyebrow threading performed by himself, Ms. Hart, and two other employees. The three hair wigs in Ms. Hart's apartment were the result of the $1,200 used to pay for the dream of looking like her idol, actress Selena Gomez. Born Anne Marie Hart, Ms. Hart loved acting, singing, and dancing and didn't have a traditional Catholic upbringing. When she was 11, she came across the television show "Twin Peaks" and fell in love with the lead female character, the beautiful Diane. Before she was seventeen, Ms. Hart decided that she needed to have plastic surgery to have the look of the younger Ms. Diane. Surgeons would now consider her a mature adult and perform the procedures. "Hailey loved acting and dancing and didn't have a traditional Catholic upbringing.
